COMMISSIONER'S CORNER by Joe Bertagna

We have now completed the 135-game Hockey East regular season and congratulations to Boston College, the trophy winner. With all the attention our tournament gets, I have always thought the regular season champ gets a little shortchanged on credit. In any league, particularly this one, it is quite an accomplishment to end up on top of the race that began with the first league game on October 8 and ended 148 days later on March 5.

Some of the media commented on the race coming down to the last minute of the last game and the good fortune of having two teams in a showdown for first place. I make the schedules out in two-year cycles about two years ahead of time. It doesn't take special training to take a flyer on a BC-UNH match-up affecting the top of the standings. The risk, of course, is that first place is clinched earlier and those games have less meaning when played. For the record, here is the final weekend for next year when we start a new cycle:

March 2	March 3
NU at BU	BU at NU
UNH at Maine	UNH at Maine
UVM at BC	UVM at BC
Lowell at PC	PC at Lowell
Merrimack at UMass	UMass at Merrimack

In one or more of those series, the 2011-12 standings will hang in the balance.
