Maureen Murphy Named Hockey East Player of the Month

Mueller and Aurard Share Best Rookie Honors; Myers Wins Top Goaltender

Hockey East Player of the Month

Maureen Murphy - Providence

Sophomore Forward; Buffalo, New York

Murphy helped Providence to a perfect 8-0-0 record in November, scoring five of the Friars' game-winning goals in the month, a total that lead all NCAA players. In total, she netted eight goals and six assists for 14 points, tied for the most goals and second-most points of any WHEA player in the month. She racked up four multi-point games, including two outings with three points. Currently, Murphy ranks fourth in the nation in goals per game (0.88), sixth in points per game (1.62), first in shorthanded goals (3) and first in game-winning strikes (7).

Hockey East Goaltender of the Month

Madison Myers - Providence

Senior; Colchester, Vermont

Myers posted a flawless 8-0-0 record on the month, compiling wins in each start she made for the Friars. The senior netminder kicked out 167 shots she faced and picked up the league's best November goals against average at 1.25. Her .944 save percentage was the best of any league goalie that played at least 50% of her team's minutes. She allowed one goal or fewer in six of the eight games she started in November and posted one shutout. Her 1.22 GAA on the season ranks second in the NCAA and is fourth in save percentage with a .948.
