NEWS & NOTES

While Boston College won the first Ice Breaker of 2021 last Saturday in Worcester, the second installment of the annual tournament, delayed due to the COVID-impacted 2020-21 season, kicks off Friday at AMSOIL Arena in Duluth, Minnesota. Hockey East will have another chance to take home a trophy as the #10/10 Providence Friars will put their undefeated record on the line against #1/1 Minnesota State on Friday and #5/5 Minnesota Duluth on Saturday. #3/3 Michigan will also take place in the tournament, pitting four teams ranked in the top 10 of the national polls against each other.

Northeastern and Boston College square off on NESN on Friday, renewing their intercity rivalry. The Eagles have won each of the last four meetings between the two programs by a combined score of 23-7. Last season the pair of programs clashed on two separate occasions, filling schedule needs on March 5 and February 2.

A packed non-conference slate dominates the Hockey East schedule this weekend, including 10 games played on the road and just six at home. In addition to Providence playing two games in Duluth at the Ice Breaker, UConn plays a set at Ohio State, Merrimack travels to Colgate for two, and New Hampshire is slated to visit Arizona State. Massachusetts is set for a home-and-home with Western Massachusetts rival AIC, and Boston University hosts Sacred Heart twice. Two single outings take place Saturday as Boston College skates at Bentley and Quinnipiac travels to Vermont.
